OUR SUPERINTENDENT

GREETINGS AND GOOD LUCK
TO MR. HULL

We, the Senior Class, "Thank You" for your tireless efforts and goodwill in guiding us for the past three years toward that one great goal "graduation" The way has been rough and rugged at times, but we were always confident of your interest and support.

The entire student body, all of whom have profited by your influence, join us in our wish that success and happiness may be with you as you enter your new field of endeavor.

CLASS HISTORY

In the year 1937 there were twenty-five timid little boys and girls enrolled in the first grade. Out of this twenty-five there are only five left to graduate from P.H.S. These are Jennie Workman, Mary Yeagy, Bob Copper, and Milton Lee Shaw.

In the second grade these open-mouthed little wonderers were joined by Eva Mae Meredith, and Jack Marston. As they wended their way through grade school, five more members of the present senior class hooked on. These are Margie Workman, Dick Monical, Maurine McClay, Mary Jane Williams, and Darrell Bair.

September of '45 found forty-one scared freshmen being initiated into four long years of hard work. That year they had some lively class parties. The class chose Jack Marston for president; Dick Monical, vice president; and John Selbe as secretary and treasurer. The class lost six of its weary students; Bill Mason, Milton Stoner, Johnny Selbe, Betty and Gloria Slansky, and Lola Dunham. This left only thirty-five to face the sophomore year.

During the second year they became more permanently attached to P.H.S. These courageous students took time for music productions and displayed their skill in athletics, but found that it paid to be ignorant. The officers elected for this year were Keith Gilbert, president; Dick Monical, vice president; and Don Mosher, secretary and treasurer. At the end of the sophomore year they lost Richard Bradley, Ted Benoit, Keith Burkholder, Katherine Dechant, Arlene Dreiling, Waunita Dreiling, Roylynn Lumpkins, Keith Gilbert, and Freda Sprinkle.

The juniors found this year better than the others for they now had hopes of graduating sometime. This year they chose for their president, Milton Shaw; vice president, Phyllis Brumbaugh; secretary, Don Mosher; and treasurer, Mary Williams. The class gained one, Phyllis Brumbaugh, and lost three, Leon Bair, Ralph Green, and Joyce Pulec. The class put on a three act comedy play "When A Woman Decides", and they honored the seniors with a swiffy prom.

At the beginning of the senior year the class gained three students, Ann Schneider, Ellen Shipman, and Dan Clements, bringing the total to twenty-five to graduate from P.H.S. The officers for this year were Paul Rempe, president; Dick Monical, vice president; Phyllis Brumbaugh, secretary; and Don Mosher, treasurer. This class was very busy with the Cardinal Booster, Annual, and their play "Don t Take My Penny." To finish their high school days of happy memories the class is planning a sneak.

WE DON'T WANT 'EM

We, the members of the senior class of 1949, knowing that our time has come to leave dear old P.H.S., do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament, each of us being of unsound mind, but possessing a steady hand, do hereby bequeath, endow, and will our most prized possessions to the faculty and under-classmen.

Having spent all of our money on gowns and invitations, we do hereby request that all of our debts at the drug stores, and all library fines, be left to the juniors, also our dignity, vast store of knowledge, and polite mannerisms in the halls.

To the sophomores we bestow our ability to keep the locker doors from slamming and our habit of arriving at school promptly at 9:15 a.m.

To the freshmem we leave the hope of someday becoming seniors.

To all the students in general we leave the honor of being teachers pets.

I, Phyllis Brumbaugh, leave my typing ability to Bluford Hartnett.

I, Bob Copper, will my cheating ability to Phil Parker.

I, Louise Brotemarkle, bequeath my ability to keep my man to Judy Canning.

I, Jack Marston, bestow my ability to stay in school to Richard Henrie.

I, Eva Mae Meredith, will my blonde hair to Geneva Beckley.

I, Dick Monical, leave my ability to stand the sight of blood to Dale McConchie and my used tooth brush to Max McClay.

I, Ellen Shipman, leave my southern brogue to Pauline Fellhoelter.

I, Dan Clements, bestow my millions to those who need them.

I, Margie Workman, will my boy friend's 'Chevie' to Jack Pulec.

I, Violet Slansky, will my small figure to Vivian Harrison.

I, Ruth Ann Malin, will my quietness to Bernadine Rempe.

I, Delma McConchie,will my sweet little brother, Dale, to Mary Ruth Rempe.

I, Milton Shaw, bequeath my girl friends to John Clarke.

I, Mary Lorene Westhusin, leave my smile to Wanda Lumpkins.

I, Paul Rempe, will my bashfulness to Don Prickett.

I, Maurine McClay, will my polite behavior to who ever needs it.

I, Don Mosher, will my passion for winking at the girls to the Jones Twins, and my study hall water pistol to Eldon Westhusing.

I, Jennie Workman, will my ability to be mean to Angela Ganoung.

I, Darrel Bair, leave my ability to be popular with the girls to Bob Ordway.

I, Mary Jane Williams, will my ability to keep a car in the road to Florence Ruhaak.

I, Carl Groom, will my worn out locker and torn American Observer to some unlucky senior next year.

I, Ann Schneider, bestow my ability to sleep in class to Evelyn Dwinelle.

I, Betty Stalnaker, bequeath my quiet ways to Jackie Fischer.

I, Mary Yeagy, will American History to the Seniors of 1950.

I, Nadine Jones, will my long hair to Wilma Lee Taylor.

LOOK AT US NOW

The Senior class of 1949 is holding their reunion in the Sky Room of the Palace Hotel in Plainville, Kansas. In order that their friends may know of their achievements. Time has been given them on station K. A. Y. S. and the following program is a newscast. The time is May 12, 1959.

The commentator is the famous golden voice of radio, the envey of his class of '49', the one and only, JACK MARSTON.

Here's news folks!

PAUL REMPE is coach of the Notre Dame football team with Doak Walker as his assistant.

MARY JANE WILLIAMS has accepted a position as the "before" in the Ry-Krisp ad.

DAN CLEMENTS is Digbee O'Dell, the friendly undertaker's assistant. His motto is when "I Lay Them Out They Stay Laid."

DARRELL BAIR owns half-interest in the "Bair and Smith's" store. Darrell's department is Ladies Ready to Wear. His motto is "we fit all shapes and sizes."

We see ARTIE SHAW as a happy bachelor on his farm, "The Bachelor's Paradise," near Plainville, with a house full of old maid servants.

After graduating from good old P.H.S., BOB COPPER joined the Navy and has just been promoted from Captain to Fleet Commander of the "Brig."

RUTH ANN MALIN is Home Demonstration Agent at "You-Don't-Say-So", Illinois.

DON MOSHER was unable to attend as he suffered two broken arms, after blowing the roof off the Columbia University Laboratory with his latest experiment.

MARY YEAGY, a traveling evangelist, is holding a revival at the Methodist Church, at Jerico, Kanaas.

MARGIE WORKMAN is private secretary to Henry Ford V. She also operates the "Drive 'em in and Drag 'em out" department. She plans to retire soon and travel over the United States with Jimmy Jones.

BETTY STALNAKER is nowaa famous horse trainer in Kentucky. One of her best trained horses just won the Kentucky Derby.

VIOLET SLANSKY is an air stewardess on "The Kansan", the first jet propelled plane of the Trans Continental Airlines.

ANN SCHNEIDER owns a chain of restaurants. Every Tuesday and Thursday she gives away free pie and ice cream.

MAURINE McCLAY is the feature attraction in Bill Strouse's bubble dance show. The show is doing very well we hear.

EVA MAE MEREDITH is now Chief Operator of Bell Telephone Company. She is doing very well; but we are very sorry to say that her husband is in the hospital as a result of swinging on telephone wires.

DELMA McCONCHIE has expanded her Hereford ranch and now owns half of Texas. People have a lot of trouble finding the owner among the rest of the cows. On the side line, she races hotrods.

CARL GROOM has gone to Washington D.C. to help run the government and clean out the White House. Yes, he's head janitor there and things really shine around him. Usually it's sweet young things.

DICK MONICAL's studio is located in Plainville, Kansas. Dick specializes in taking pictures of his ardent pin-up girls. His motto is "Short, but not showing."

LOUISE BROTEMARKLE is Bing Crosby's private secretary. As a side line she sings with Bing over station N. U. T. S. Tune in tonight and hear their melodious voices singing her own composition, Chomp, Chomp, Chomp that Bubble Gum.

ELLEN SHIPMAN's beauty shoppe is located in a little town of Aw-Come-On, Kansas. She specializes in girling men's wigs.

R. W. or Y. B. S. (Right, Wrong or You'll be sorry) is the formula Phyllis Brumbaugh uses in her noble career, teaching.

JENNY WORKMAN is head nurse at the John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland.

The "Fall Down and Go On Skating" is now run by Miss Mary Westhusin whose motto is "We admit men only."

George and Nadine, the former Miss Jones are living on a small stump and rock farm in the Ozarks.

This concludes tonight's newscast---but we'll return again at this time five years from tonight when again we meet for a reunion and now we return you to station K. A. Y. S.

TO THE P.H.S. STUDENTS WHO CAN READ
(both of you)

The members of the Cardinal Staff feel that you have the right to know how the dough (loot or moola) was spent for the publication of this literary masterpiece----Huh? We have such a deep appreciation for your loyal support that we submit the following accurate (Oh, yeah) financial statement. Please be lenient and ignor a few small (?) errors, for this deliberate falsification represents several minutes of intense mental labor and the expenditure of several thousand brain kilowatts by members of the staff.
